THE OFFICIAL CALL

For the Twenty fourth Annual Convention of the Woman's Christian Temper-

The following call has been issued: The twenty-fourth annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Musle Hall, Buffalo, N. Y., October 29 to November 3, 1897. It will immediately follow the fourth biennial convention of the World's W. C. T. U.-October 23 to 26-which, in its turn will follow the annual convention of the W. C. T. U. of the Dominion of Canada; the last two to be held in the city of Toronto, Ontario. These will, without doubt, form the most remarkable trio of wo-form the most remarkable trio of wo-men's conventions ever held in this or any other country.

The basis of representation in the na-tional union continues the same as in previous years, viz., one delegate-at-large for each auxiliary state and ter-ritorial union, and one additional dele-gate for each five hundred of the ac-tive, paid-up membership. The general officers of the national union, the four general officers of each state and terri-tory, the boards of national superintengeneral officers of each state and territory, the boards of national superintendents, organizers and evangelists, the general secretaries of the Y. and L. T. L. branches, the chairmen of standing committees, the representatives of affiliated interests, the editors and publisher of our official organ, and the editors of all state W. C. T. U. papers are exofficio members of the convention. In addition to the many women thus holding official relationship there will be a large number of visiting white-ribboners, as well as visiting and fraternal delegates from kindred organizations. Many of the distinguished guests at the World's convention will remain over to the national. The annual sermon on World's convention will remain over to the national. The annual sermon on October 31 will be preached by Lady Henry Somerset, and it is confidently expected that, both in the number in attendance and in the richness and va-riety of the programme, this conven-tion will excel any yet held by the W. C. T. U. of the United States. As it is of especial importance that each state and territory should have its

As it is of especial importance that each state and territory should have its full quota of representation. We urge the women of all the local unions throughout the nation to a prompt and full payment of dues, in order that there may appear no deficit in the ranks through neglect or tardiness. We also urge all women holding official relations for the payment of th also arge all women moding other relationship to plan, so far as possible, to be themselves in attendance, in order that this convention, which will occur so near the close of the nineteenth century, may be in every way worthy of that twentieth century whose dawn it heralds. A most efficient committee in Buffalo is planning for the entertainment of a large number of delegates, as well as attending to other detail work in making way for our coming. "The more the merrier" seems to be their watchword and we are sure that a cordial welcome awaits us in that giant city, which is growing up at the eastern end of Lake Erfe.

There should be an earnest and agcressive campaign for the securing of new members in the months intervening between this official call and the opening date of the convention. We call upon each state officer and upon lationship to plan, so far as possible, opening date of the convention. We call upon each state officer and upon each state convention to sound out this busic note; we call upon each individual white-ribboner to be herself a missionary of the special divine word which has been committed to our trust, and, "as ye go, preach" this "Gospel of the Kingdom." There is no reason why the W. C. T. U. should not double its membership before the next convention. There is every reason why it should, and we believe it would, if each woman did her-best.

we believe it would, if each woman did lier-best.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union has long since passed the period when it needs explanation or apology. The world knews that the principles for which it stands are the protection of the home, the abolition of whatever menaces that home, the uplifting of the individual life to the glorious plane of the "messure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ," and the upbuilding upon earth, in personality, in custom, in society and in government, of the kingdom of God. We believe that God is alive to-day, and as much interested in His warld as when He spoke of eld through prophet and priest; that evil is neither a necessity in this life nor in the life to come; that God calls His children to a co-partnership with Himself for the redemption of the world, and that he only works for God who works for man. We therefore hold up without fear or doubting out white-ribbon banner, upon which is inscribed the inspired motto, "For God and Home and Native Lind." That banner stands for text abstituence, for prohibition, for purity, for putter and to reace. It has never stood for less than the sum total of individual and national righteousthe "measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ," and the upbuilding upon earth, in personality, in custom, in society and in government, of the kingdom of God. We believe that God is alive to-day, and as much interested in His world as when He spoke of old through prophet and priest; that evil is neither a necessity in this life nor in the life to come; that God calls His children to a co-partnership with Himself for the redemption of the world, and that he only works for God who works for man. We therefore hold up without fear or doubting out white-ribbon tanner, upon which is inscribed the inspired motto. "For God and Home and Native Land." That banner stands for total abstituence, for prohibition, for jurity, for justice and for peace. It has never stood for loss than the sum total of individual and national righteous ness; we intend that each year it shall stand more and more for this divine ideal as-God kives to us clearer light.
Let this be the motto of every whiteribboner the world over: "Hold the light up, higher, higher," for this we know, that the God who led our crusade mothers forth is our God still, and that His

Let us come up to Buffalo, beloved slaters, in much prayer and in a mighty faith. Greater is He that is for us than all that can possibly be against us. We must not fall nor be discouraged, for righteousness shall be established.

us. We must not fall nor be discourag-ed, for righteousness shall be establish-ed in our land and the far-away isles that "wait for His word" shall know Him as a God who speaks through righteousness, mighty to save the uni-verse to Himself when once His chil-dren shall have learned how to place themselves in the trend of his infinite purpose. The indications from to-day's market were that prices generally would suffer a material reaction had it not been for the stimulating effect of the sensational advances shown by individual stocks. Buyers were evidently possessed by a furore of speculation and the difficulty of moving the prices of most of the leading railroad shares led to those securities being comparatively neglected. Stocks concerning which some favorable prospect was reported but without definite details and not backed by authority were crosen as the favorities in the speculation. The sensation of the day was the jump in the price of Omaha, the stock touching $214 in the final transactions. The extreme rise was 1034 points, and the net gain a point less. The stock was not exempt from depression, which weighed of the grangers and in fact on most of the list during the early part of the day and it sold down 40 from last night's close. By 1 o'clock, it had recovered the loss and gained over 2 points addition. But in little more than an hour of the latter part of the day the price mounted 7 points and was in full tide of the advance when dealings ceased. The trading was attended by great excitement and the massas in the advance were only momen. points and was in full tide of the advance when dealings ceased. The trading was attended by great excitement and the passes in the advance were only momentary and at wide changes. The rise was due to a belief that the stock will shortly be placed on a regular dividend basis, the size of the proposed dividend forming with the size of the proposed partially while comaha was still strongly advancing. Sugar also continued to be an exciting center of speculation during the morning and advanced 3 points on rumors of a distribution of surplus and of advantages to accrue from exclusion of Dutch refined sugars. refined sugars.

Tobacco also opened nearly 2 points refined sugars.

Tobacco also opened nearly 2 points higher, but this was also the highest of the day. The two stocks fluctuated in a very erratic manner all day, but closed with a net gain of only 5½ for Sugar and 5½ for Tobacco. Missouri Pacific touched 40 in the opening transactions, but fell off during the day on realizing to below last night's close. The coalers made some display of strength during the day, especially the Reading stocks, but they succumbed to depression later. Rock Island also advanced at one time over a point above the lowest, as did Louisville & Nashville, but the latter declined below yesterday's price and the former saved only a fractional net gain. With these exceptions the railroad list was almost wholly given over to depression. The day's changes are small, a large number of stocks closing unchanged, but the majority of active issues show losses extending to ½ per cent in Northern Pacific preferred on its poor show of earnings. Railroad stocks that showed sharp gains were Chicago & Eastern Illinois preferred and Great Northern preferred 2 per cent; Lake Erie & Western preferred. Preferred and Great Northern preferred 2 per cent; Lake Erie & Western preferred. The industrial stocks as a rule showed gains, notably in the cotton oil stocks. Sugar preferred, Local gas stocks, General Electric, Metropolitan Traction, National Lead, National Starch, Leatlier preferred and Oregon Navigation. LaClede Gas lost over a point and Leather preferred and Oregon Naviga-tion, LaClede Gas lost over a point and

The bond market showed some falling off in activity, the par value of bonds sold amounting to about $3,300,000. Prices were generally higher.

English market. It was to the renewal of foreign buying that the market owed its strength, as it showed the dependence of Europe upon this country for supplies until next spring at least. Receipts were 415 cars, 21 of which were contract. Minneapolis and Duluth received 394 carloads, against 345 the corpresponding day of the year before. The Atlantic port clearances were again close to the million bushel mark, the actual quantity in wheat and flour being 966,000 bushels, which will make the average exports 1,000,000 bushels a day for three consecutive days, for the ing 966,000 bushels, which will make the average exports 1,000,000 bushels a day for three consecutive days, for the equivalent of which reference has to go back to the Russian famine. That gave a fresh impetus to the upward trend of prices, December bringing 92% about 12:15. Closing cables were of a mixed character, Parls was 20 centimes —le per bushel—ligher; Antwerp 1f, or 5½4 lower; Liverpool closed at an even advance of from ½d for December to 1d higher for September. Heavy shorts in this market saw good reasons for getting off that side and contributed to the advance, which kept gaining until within a minute or two of the close December had rose to 94c, but had reacted to 193%; at the close.

There was an enormous trade in corn, with the west doing the most buying and with crop damage claims the factor. There was some disposition to sell at the opening on protracted rains in the corn belt, but that changed quickly when wheat shorts started for cover. December started at from 31%(63%)c, most of the trading at the higher figure, which was at about where it closed yesterday. The price gained steadily until a few minutes from the close it reached 33%; and it wound up at 33%(2) 33%c. Some heavy short lines were covered and helped materially in causing the advance. Iowa advices were to the effect that the season's yield in that state would be only half a crop. Receipts were 1,550 cars; charters were for 515,000 bushels.

The session in oats was unattended with any noticeable activity, business later wound season's controlled with any noticeable activity, business and the parket was a controlled with any noticeable activity, business and the parket was a controlled with any noticeable activity, business and the parket was a controlled with any noticeable activity, business and the parket was a controlled with any noticeable activity, business and contro

The session in oats was unattended The session in oats was unatteness with any noticeable activity, business being principally local. The market was firm throughout, principally through sympathy with wheat. Receipts were 453 cars. Visible increased 768,00% bushels. December opened unchanged and gradually advanced to 20%c, where it closed.

Provisions were moderately active. Provisions were moderately active. The market opened easy under the influence of fairly liberal deliveries, but the market turned strong when wheat and corn began to climb. Armour and Cudahy were both said to be heavy buyers. At the close December pork was 10c higher at $8 07½. December lard 2½@5c higher at $4 97½@5 00, December riba unchanged at $5 10.

Estimated receipts Thursday: Wheat 185 cars: corn 1,125 cars; oats 400 cars; hogs 30,000 head.
